Dear [REDACTED]:

I am responding to your August 6, 2002, inquiry on behalf of your constituent. Your constituent asked about a repeal of the federal excise tax on highway tractors used to pull recreational vehicles.

I cannot comment on whether the vehicle your constituent referred to is subject to federal excise tax. However, I hope the following general information is helpful.

The Internal Revenue Code (the Code) imposes a 12 percent excise tax on the first retail sale of tractors of the kind chiefly used for highway transportation with a trailer or semitrailer [Section 4051(a)(1)(E) of the Code]. If a vehicle is primarily designed to tow another vehicle, such as a trailer or semitrailer, the vehicle is a tractor [Section 145.4051-1(e)(1) of the Temporary Excise Tax Regulations Under the Highway Revenue Act of 1982]. A tractor is a taxable vehicle regardless of whether the trailer or semitrailer the tractor tows is used for recreational or commercial purposes.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (202) 622-3000 or [REDACTED] of my staff at (202) 622-3130.

Sincerely,

Heather C. Maloy
